What If I Don't Qualify For Need-Based Aid?

MERIT AID AND COMPETITION

1. Identify where the student will be eligible for scholarships
2. Some colleges require FAFSA/CSS in order to qualify for scholarships
3. MYCAP.COLLEGEAIDPRO.COM

Ivy League, NESCAC, etc. do not give merit-awards*

Deadlines Are Paramount

Every College
Requires The FAFSA

Many Private Colleges Require The
CSS/ Profile And/Or Their Own
Institutional Form In Addition To FAFSA

Is The Responsibility Of Student/Parent To Know
Deadlines / Requirements?

Most Colleges Are Not Proactive
And Sometimes Only Communicate
With The Students

Pros and Cons Of 2023 FAFSA Changes

Pros

More resources for low-income families

Easier to qualify for PELL

Less Questions; ~100+ questions vs ~35 questions

Child support treated as asset, NOT income

Some untaxed income eliminated from formula

- Workman's Comp, Veteran Benefits, 401(k) & 403(b) pre-tax contributions, "other" untaxed income

Cons

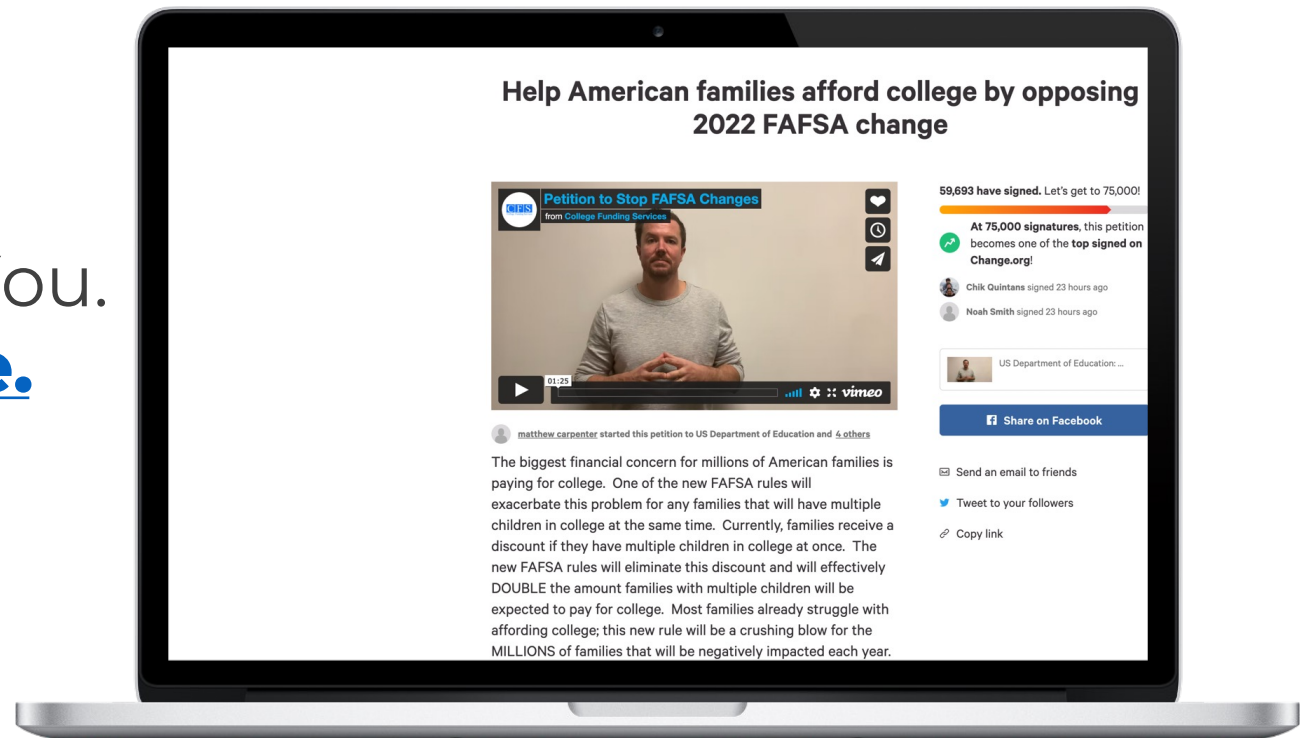

Families with multiple children in college will no longer receive discount

Parent that provides the most financial support in 2-household families will be required to complete FAFSA

- Previously completed by custodial parent/s

Deductions/payments to self-employed SEP & SIMPLE plans and other deductions delineated on the 1040 are STILL considered untaxed income.
